Global container production falls as demand for goods sinks

Global production of shipping containers has fallen significantly as demand for goods sank following the easing of pandemic restrictions, leaving the corrugated steel boxes piled up at major ports. Figures provided to the Financial Times by Drewry, a maritime research consultancy, show that production of 20-foot equivalent units — the industry’s standard size for a container — fell 71 per cent from 1.06mn to 306,000 between the first quarter of 2022 and the same period this year.

Bienvenido a México! AGM 2024

Famous for vibrant culture...
beautiful beaches...
and rich ancient history... and...

Incredible Food

Mexican food is one of the world's most beloved cuisines. After all, who doesn't love a taco? Mexican food is so famous and admired in fact, that it even has its own UNESCO status.

Ancient Temples

One of the world's most vibrant and rich ancient history. Especially in the form of temples, pyramids and other ruins. The most famous among them are the Chichen Itza, Palenque and Teotihuacan.

Powdery White Sand Beaches

With more than 9,000 kilometres of coastline that boasts more than 500 beaches, sand and sun are pretty special in Mexico.

Chocolate

Mexico is the birthplace of chocolate! That's right, the Olmec Indians are thought to be the first harvesters of the magic cocoa some 4,000 years ago.

Mariachi Bands

Yet another UNESCO recognized aspect, mariachi music. Mexico's regional folk music is one of its biggest claims to fame and is famous all over the world.

Tequila

Don Julio Blanco is the Tequila to beat and the benchmark against which all Blanco Tequilas are compared.
